APICAIA is Recruiting International Institutional Partners

We are looking for like-minded institutional collaborators to join us in expanding the boundaries of artistic and cultural exchange.

We welcome institutions that:

- Are engaged in the fields of art, culture, education, design, or related areas
- Are interested in building mutually beneficial partnerships through resource exchange
- Wish to collaborate on joint online/offline projects, exhibitions, residencies, or platform initiatives
- Are passionate about promoting international cultural exchange

Please note: Physical residency is not required. Our focus is on resource sharing and long-term collaboration.

As an institutional partner, you will gain access to:

- A Resource-Sharing Platform: Collaborate across multiple dimensions—spaces, exhibitions, projects, artists, and more.
- An International Exchange Network: Become part of a cross-cultural community of artists, curators, and institutions.
- Brand Collaboration and Promotional Support: Engage in mutual promotion across both platforms to expand visibility and audience reach.
- Priority Access to Collaborative Opportunities: Receive priority invitations for residency programs, themed initiatives, co-curated exhibitions, and long-term partnerships.

How to Collaborate with Us:

- Please send your institutional profile and relevant materials to: info@apicaia.com

We will carefully review all applications and look forward to co-creating something meaningful with you!
